Fishmongers' Faraday School Award

2026 Preliminary Enquiry Form

This award is available to children who are currently being educated in a state school for entry into Faraday School at Year 3 or Year 4, whose family is not able to afford the full fees for a place at Faraday School.

The award is means-tested and so all applicants will be required to provide us with full details of their family income and assets, with supporting documents. We recognise that this can be quite time consuming and so at this stage, we just ask you to provide an indication of the family's income and assets. As a general rule of thumb, applicants with a household income over £60,000 per annum would probably not be eligible to receive the award.

The award is based on either the applicant's academic merit and/or potential in another field, e.g. music, art or sports. A child would be expected to be working at similar academic levels to the cohort they would be joining. The award will run for the child's time at the school.

Interested parents are encouraged to attend an open morning at the school (please see the school's website for open day dates or email admissions@faradayschool.co.uk) or call 0208 965 7374 to arrange a private visit with the Head teacher. But this is not necessary prior to submitting an application.

Selection will be based on latest school reports, a trial day which will include some assessment tests, references from their current school. Finalists and their parents will then be invited for an interview.
